A FLURRY IN SILVER

BULLION ADVANCES ON PARIS DE-MAND AND LOCAL SPECULATION.

Stock List Dull on New York 'Change, with a Declining Tendency-Local Markets Remain Firm.

At New York yesterday money on call was easy at 11/02 per cent.; last loan, 2; closed at 11/2@2 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper, 4001/2 per cent. Sterling exchange was heavy, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.881/@4.881/2 for demand and $4.871/4@4.871/2 for sixty days; posted rates, $4.88@4.89 and $4.89@4.90; commercial bills, $4.86%.

Bar silver, 68%c; silver certificates, 68%@ Be. At London bar silver closed at 3 13-16d per ounce. The advance in silver bullion at New York yesterday of a half cent an ounce is attributed to three causes: Buying by Paris for Russian account, decreased Leadville production and speculative buying of futures by local interests based professedly on the attitude of political factors regarding free silver. The purchases of futures on speculative account through one broker alone were 300,000 ounces.

Total sales of stocks yesterday were 99,907 shares, including the following: American Tobacco, 3,700; American Sugar, 19,000; Burlington & Quincy, 3,700; Louisville & Nashville. 7,400; Manhattan, 3,900; Northwest, 2,100; St. Paul, 10,800; Western Union, 3,400; silver certificates, 3,000.

Dullness and a declining movement of ces were the characteristics of yesterlay's stock market. So far as the extent of gar and St. Paul, deserved comment. The cellation reflected usappointment over short-lived bullish sentiment on Amercans in London and manipulation for a fail inent industrial interests. The trading was almost exclusively professional and in a number of instances the losses scored were material. Liquidation was apparent in spots. Leather preferred on a moderate volume of business was a prominent figure. The stock declined early on sales attributed to the declined and the dividend. to the belief that action on the dividend their meeting. The announcement of the declaration of a dividend of 1 per cent. was reserved with somewhat mixed feeling cwing to expectations, not generally held, that a 2 per cent. disbursement would be authorized. Covering by shorts caused a rally to 64%, which was followed by a subsequent reaction to 63%. Sugar, the grangers, Louisville & Nashville, Manhattan and Tennessee Coal were depressed 1@1½ per cent., with the pressure most marked in the final deal-ings. The news of the day bearing on the speculation was meager. Foreign operators were moderate sellers of the internationals the easier market for foreign exchange was offset by a reported advance in the bld.

price for American gold by German bankers.
The closing was at the lowest.
Bonds ruled heavy with pronounced declines in Atchison adjustment fours, Oregon Improvement firsts, Union Elevated firsts and Brooklyn Elevated firsts. The sales nent bonds were firm. State bonds

LOCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE. Trade Fairly Active, with Prices

Firm and Steady.

June opens with trade quite active in most departments. The better promise of crops is helping matters somewhat. Grocers and hardware men report trade more active, and dry goods carry a firm tone. Produce is active. Poultry, eggs and butter are firm at unchanged quotations. Receipts of fruit and vegetables are not so large, and prices are a hade firmer, although the range is still very low for May. Provisions are active, but rices weak at the reduced quotations of y. Hide market is quiet, but prices steady at recent advances.

The local grain market is lifeless, trans-ctions few, receipts moderate and demand ight. Track bids yesterday were as fol-Wheat-No. 2 red, 591/2c; No. 3 red, 551/20

IMOGENE HYATT'S DAMAGE SUIT. It Is Now on Trial in the Hamilton County Court.

The case of Imogene Hyatt against Albert Tucker, detective Grady and others is now on trial at Noblesville. This is a change of venue from Marion county. Mrs. Hyatt is suing for $25,000 damages on account of maliclous prosecution and false imprisonment. The plaintiff and defendant Tucker both reside in Kosciusko county. The trouble grew out of a breach of promise suit in which Mrs. Hyatt recovered a judgment for $6,000 against Tucker. Afterwards, as she claims, Mrs. Hyatt was decoyed to Indianapolis by some detectives in the employ of Tucker and was arrested and imprisoned

Two barns and several outbuildings at the rear of the residences of James Holmes and Al Ensey, on Station street, Brightwood, were completely destroyed by fire yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is believed that two little boys, whom one of the women at the houses saw running away from the rear of Mr. Holmes's barn just before the flames burst forth, accidentally fired the barn. The barns and sheds were past saving when the suburb's volunteer fire companies arrived upon the scene, but they soon had the flames under control and prevented them from spreading to adjoining buildings. Three of the firemen were so rash as to the root and measured his length upon the ground between two burning buildings. Two comrades hastened to his assistance and dragged him from his dangerous position. His injuries were a badly bruised shoulder and arm and numerous cuts and bruises about the face, none of which will prove serious. The total loss caused by the fire is estimated at between $400 and $500.

Henry Hensel, of West Indianapolis, who has been missing from his home for several days, returned last night.

The distance between the Vincennes rallroad and Kentucky-avenue bridges over White river is less than half a square, yet between these points on the suburban side of White river can be seen hundreds of dead bass, croppies, suckers and nearly every other species of fish that inhabits the river. The polluted river has cast up these victims from its poison depths, and a stench has already begun to arise.

Thieves entered the residence of John Mitchell, No. 27 Shover street, West Indianapolis, vesterday afternoon, and stole clothing and wearing apparel to the amount of CHICAGO, June 3.-Wheat made a low record for the season to-day, touching 55%c momentarily, but rallied and closed with a gain of 16c over yesterday's final figures, the big world's visible decrease being responsible for the final rally. Corn and oats both exhibited strength, closed 46% higher re-

When the down turn came to a sudden halt shorts began to absorb the offerings to secure profits. There were some country orders received and sellers withdrew. French cables then began to report a bad outlook for the French crop, owing to the prolonged drought, and 30x60 to 40x60-Single: AA. $19; A, $16.75; crop, owing to the prolonged drought, and B, $15.75. Then came the liberal clearances from New York-mearly 500,000 bushels in wheat and flour-and the sentiment was materially strengthened. The covering by early sellers and the evidence of some speculative buying gradually developed a better reaction than has been experienced for some time, the rally being nearly \(\frac{1}{4}c. \) The closing cables brought lower quotations from Liverpool, doubtless because 14c. The closing cables brought lower quotations from Liverpool, doubtless because of the drop which occurred here in the first five minutes of the session. The Berlin and Paris also came lower. That caused more reaction, which succeeded the 1/2c advance to 561/2c for July, and reduced it for a moment again to 557/2656c. There were a number of minor fluctuations during the next hour. Bradstreet's reported a decrease in the hour. Bradstreet's reported a decrease in the world's stock last week of 3,740,000 bushels, sales of the week show more businesss in which advanced the price to 56%c for July, Territory grades, but they are yet dull and the closing price being 56%c. Trading in corn was moderately brisk, and though exhibiting weakness early in the session rallied and closed firm. The heavy local receipts and weakness in wheat were the cause of the early weakness. Large clearances and the wheat rally helped prices and July opened 1/2c lower at 27%c, touched 27 and closed at 27%c.

Oats followed much the same course as did corn. July opened 1/3c lower at 171/2c, and declined to 171/4c on heavy selling pressure, but rallied with other grains and good cash iemand, closing at 17%c.

Provisions were strongly influenced by the unexpectedly small receipts of hogs. Opening prices were at a small advance. A decline followed with the drop in wheat, but prices crept back again, the closing feeling being firm. July pork closed 17½c higher at $7.02½c; July lard, 05c higher at 4.17½c; July ribs, .07½c higher at 3.72½c.

JUDGE CONSIDERS IT

ARGUMENT IN STREET-CAR INJUNC-TION CASE CONCLUDED.

Shown that Company Must Obtain Permission of Council to Cut Into the Streets.

The argument in the case of the city against the Citizens' Street-railroad Company, in which the city seeks to prevent the company from laying tracks on Cornell avenue, Bellefontaine and other streets, was concluded yesterday morning, and Judge Brown has taken the matter under advisement. He will render his decision soon. The whole argument is on the right of the city to regulate the cutting of the streets for any purpose. Messrs. Miller and Winter, in their argument for the company, have contended that the streets in question are not paved, and, therefore, cannot come within the restrictions named in the city charter, whereby the Board of Works is given control of the cutting of all paved streets. They further contended that, regardless of this phase of the matter, the company has a right to cut the streets given by its charter, which was granted by the City Council in 1865, and that a subsequent act of the Legislature cannot abridge this right. In response to this Mr. Kern, for the city, argued that the right of property in any per- E. A. FORD, General Fassenger Agent. son or corporation must be subservient to the public welfare, and that whenever anyone holds property it is with the express understanding that it will be used in a manner which will not injure the public, and that the Legislature has a right to provide police regulations to insure the public against injury in this manner.

District. in this manner.

In resopnse to Mr. Miller's argument of what constitutes a paved street, Mr. Kern quoted from the decision of Judge Caton, of the Illionis Supreme Court, in which it is held that a pavement is any kind of a covering-gravel, pebble or other hard substance-which serves to cover the roadway and make it distinct from the natural ground and passable for vehicles. Mr. Miller relied upon the definition as given in Webster's Dictionary, which limits pavement to mean a street constructed of the various materials which are commonly understood to be permanent pavements. Mr. Kern closed by quoting from the decision of Judge Woods in the street-car case which was decided by him some time ago, in which he said it was clear that the com pany must obtain permission from the Council before it could cut into the streets. This part of the decision was concurred in Judge Baker. In the closing argument, by Mr. Miller, h claimed that the company does not claim the far-reaching rights which the attorneys for the city would have the court believe, bu that its claim is that, in the exercise of its police powers, the city is going farther than merely regulating, but is oppressing and attempting to take away part of the dompany's rights. He said the company had certain rights in the streets of the city, and that any attempt on the part of the city to curtail these rights was exceeding the power of the city in its police regulations.

MARRIED THIRTY-SEVEN YEARS.

She Sues Another Woman for Allenat-

ing a Husband's Affections. Yesterday Sarah Shackleford filed sut against Margaret E. Roy for $10,000 damages for elienating the affections of the plaintiff's husband. According to the complaint, the plaintiff and her husband are each more than sixty years of age, and have been married since 1859, and have eight living chil dren. Margaret E. Roy is a widow, and a near neighbor of the Shacklefords. It is alleged that more than a year ago the friend-ship of Mr. Shackleford and Mrs. Roy began, while the latter's husband was still alive, but was an invalid. Soon afterward Mr. Roy died, and Mrs. Shackleford charges that Mrs. Roy then began exercising her persuasive powers over the husband of the plaintiff, powers over the husband of the plaintiff, and, being a woman of pleasing appearance, robust and healthy, and about thirty-five years of age, succeeded in completely winning the love of Mr. Shackleford. She was so successful, it is alleged, that in April, 1896, Shackleford abandoned his wife and home and has since been living with Mrs. Roy. It is alleged that Mrs. Roy owns a large amount of property.

Kidnaper Osborne Now on Trial. The argument in the case of Colone Weaver, in the Criminal Court, was completed yesterday. The case was taken under advisement by Judge McCray. He is charged with robbing a saloon.

The case of Henry Osborne, who is charged with conspiracy to kidnap the Wilson chidren, in connection with the Quinette woman, was taken up and trial by court began. It was not completed last night.

THIS CARD COMPANY EJECTED. Not a Very Extensive Concern in

Which F. C. Knapp Invested. Friend C. Knapp has sued William W. Hubbard and Thomas C. Cole for $500 damages on account of an alleged fraudulent transaction in which Knapp was induced to part with his money without proper return, Knapp was formerly employed by Comin. Fletcher & Co., at $12 a week. He alieges that he was approached by the defendants. no were stockholders and directors in th Educational Playing Card Company, and offered a position with the card company at $15 a week provided he would buy some of the company's stock of the defendants. Knapp charges that he was told by the defendants that the company was doing a prosperous business and had good accounts receivable amounting to $500; that the business was profitable, and to prove this showed the company's books. Knapp then proposed that he would buy eighteen shares of stock at $15 a share if he should be elected a director and made secretary and general manager of the company at $15 a week. The proposition was accepted and he paid over $270 and gave up his position.

A week later, he alleges, the card company was ejected from its office for non-payment of rent and that the small amount of merchandise on hand was divided amount of merchandise on hand was divided amount the stockholders other than himself. It is further alleged that the entries of credits in the company's books were false and that there was really nothing due the company on accounts. By reason of this transaction Knapp gave up his former position and has not received any of the salary offered by the card company. Since March he has been out of work. He demands $500 damages.
